

The family name Pulenta, which has almost a hundred years of tradition in viticulture, fulfills with Valbona Tradition the goal set by Don Augusto: to produce wines that would strongly reflect the characteristics of the soil and the vineyards from San Juan.

VALBONA TRADICION CABERNET SAUVIGNON ROBLE

Colour

Ruby red, with a shade of violet.

Aroma

The smells of mature fruits, smoke and vanilla dominate in the aroma.

Flavour

It is a medium intense and thick wine.

Serving Suggestions:

This wine goes well with grilled meat, pastas and poultry.

Serving temperature suggestion:

16-18°C

Variety:

100% Cabernet Sauvignon

Vineyard:

Plantation Doña Filomena
9 de Julio County, San Juan, Argentina
see vineyard

Harvest:

The grapes are harvested during the fourth week of March.

Fermentation:

Standard, with selected wine yeasts, for 22 days approximately, at a maximum temperature of 30 °C

Maceration Time:

Standard, with selected wine yeasts, for 22 days approximately, at a maximum temperature of 30 °C

Malolactic Fermentation:

Natural.

Aging:

Wine aged in barrels made of American and French oak, for a period of 10 months.