

The family name Pulenta, which has almost a hundred years of tradition in viticulture, fulfills with Valbona the goal set by Don Augusto: to produce wines that would strongly reflect the characteristics of the soil and the vineyards from San Juan.

VALBONA CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Color:

Ruby red, with shiny trims.

Aroma:

The smell of fruits dominates in the aroma.

Taste:

It is a strong wine, with a round mouthfeel and nice tannins.

Suggestions:

This wine goes well with grilled meat, pastas and poultry

Serving temperature suggestion:

11-13°C

Variety:

100% Cabernet Sauvignon.

Vineyard:

Plantation Doña Filomena
9 de Julio County, San Juan, Argentina

Harvest:

The grapes are harvested during the fourth week of March.

Fermentation:

Standard, with selected wine yeasts, for 20 days approximately, at a maximum temperature of 28 °C.

Maceration Time:

Standard, with selected wine yeasts, for 20 days approximately, at a maximum temperature of 28 °C

